

CALL FOR GUEST PUBLICATIONS

CCA Derry~Londonderry has expanded its Online Shop to include limited runs of guest publications from artists across Northern Ireland and beyond. These include artist publications, exhibition catalogues, critical writing, zines and more.

Guest publications are featured and sold on CCA's Online Shop on a profit-share basis, with CCA taking a 30% commission on sales to raise funds for the gallery.

If you would like your publication to be considered for our Guest Publications programme please email us with the following information to info@cca-derry-londonderry.org with GUEST PUBLICATION in the subject of the email:

FAQ

Where do you sell guest publications?

- Online at cca-derry-londonderry.org/shop and in our gallery shop area at
Centre for Contemporary Art Derry~Londonderry
10-12 Artillery Street, Derry~Londonderry, BT48 6RG
Tuesday–Saturday, noon–6pm
(note: we are closed between exhibitions and during government restrictions)

How do I know if I have sold a copy?

- CCA will email you to let you know when a copy has been sold.

How do I get paid?

- CCA will ask you to invoice for the number of sales, you will be paid by BACS

Do I have to post hard copies to you?

- No! We can accept hard copy books through sale or return and will be available to buy in person from CCA when open - in this instance CCA will manage the stock and postage. Alternatively you can send images and manage the stock yourself - CCA will liaise with you to arrange postage. CCA don't cover the cost of postage of your initial books to CCA but we would cover the cost of return postage for any unsold copies.

My book is downloadable as a free PDF - can I 'sell' it through your online shop?

- Yes!

My book is a physical book but is free - what happens then?

- We will charge the customer the price of packaging and postage only and free hard copies will be available to take from the CCA in-gallery shop.

I have more questions!
